These are the views youâ€™ve been wanting, nestled into a hillside overlooking the Historic plaza. This true mid-century modern home built in 1960 was once owned by Santa Fe Living Treasure Maralyn Budke and has been completely revitalized. It is once again a sleek and sophisticated residence, honoring the history of its past. With views from nearly every room and beautiful natural light throughout, it is sited perfectly on a private, gated lot. Over the last decade, nearly every component has been updated. Upgrades to the electrical and HVAC systems, remodeled kitchen and bathrooms, new central air conditioning, rebuilt deck, Zuni bowls and 6,000 gallon rainwater catchment system. The footprint was also expanded: front porch, foyer, additional 3/4 bath, office/library with floating wood shelves, mud room and 2 car garage. Everything you need is accessible on the main floor including the office and spacious primary bedroom suite. Downstairs youâ€™ll find two additional bedrooms (own entry from outside), bathroom and more storage. This home was built for entertaining. The views from the kitchen, dining room and living room draw you further in leading you to the outside deck. The location cannot be understated, it's at the top of a hill overlooking the Sangre de Cristo mountains, Sun and Moon mountain and an unforgettable view of the cities lights. Youâ€™re so close you can see the Cathedral and hear the bells ringing. Come and have a look for yourself. Weâ€™ll be expecting you.
